MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

For reinvigorating the Tanzania Election Monitoring Committee hereinafter referred to as TEMCO

Dar es Salaam, 17th April, 2010

I. PREAMBLE

We the members

RECOGNIZING that Tanzania Election Monitoring Committee is a consortium of Civil Society Organisations (CSOs) and other institutions committed to the ideals of free and fair elections in Tanzania.

UNDERSTANDING that without the participation of the citizenry in upholding the cardinal principles of free and fair elections, this key pillar of democracy could be undermined.

TAKING INTO ACCOUNT that TEMCO was formed in 1994 and it monitored the 1995, 2000, 2003 (by-elections) and 2005 general elections, aware that the activities of the Committee are periodic in nature coinciding with the electoral cycle of the country, cognizant of TEMCO's professional, technical capacity and rich experience in monitoring elections as well as being a network of committed civil society organizations from all parts of Tanzania mainland and Zanzibar.

MINDFUL of the need for an independent evaluation of the electoral processes to safeguard the integrity of election; to provide feedback to election stakeholders; to make suggestions for improvements in the electoral system; to provide indications for the extent of democratic consolidation achieved; and to be able to pronounce whether all things considered the elections were free and fair or not.

CONSCIOUS of the fact that elections can be manipulated, mismanaged, rigged and compromised and while aware of the legal requirements governing the conduct of election observers in Tanzania.

DO HEREBY SOLEMNLY RESOLVE to mobilise and reinvigorate the TEMCO network for the purpose of observing the 2010 general elections, including the Union and Zanzibar elections.

II. GUIDING PRINCIPLES, OBJECTIVES AND TASKS OF TEMCO

Principles of TEMCO

In the conduct of its activities, TEMCO will be guided by the following cardinal principles

- i. Political impartiality
- ii. Integrity-honest and trustworthy
- iii. Transparency
- iv. Objectivity
- v. Diligence to duty
- vi. Professionalism
- vii. Accountability
- viii. Legality

General and Specific Objectives of TEMCO's Monitoring Activities

The general objective of TEMCO's Monitoring activities is to build practical local capacity in elections, a key institution for competitive multiparty political systems. Thus, the specific objectives of TEMCO include:

- (a) To observe the entire electoral process, including constituency setting, registration of voters, nomination of candidates, campaigning, voting, vote counting and assessing of the final election results;
- (b) To observe and assess the fairness of the administration of the elections in general, especially the impartiality of the legal infrastructure (the electoral law, regulations and directives), the electoral machinery, namely the National Electoral Commission (NEC) and the Zanzibar Electoral Commission (ZEC) and supporting state institutions and instruments of law and order;
- (c) To assess the fairness in the allocation and use of relevant state resources by the contending political parties, especially state subsidies and public media (government radio, television and newspapers);
- (d) To assess the extent to which all factors considered, the elections results can be said to have been free and fair; and
- (e) To take stock of the major lessons that can be learned from the elections with a view to improving electoral efficacy and fairness in the future.

Task and Responsibilities

TEMCO shall strive to observe the entire electoral process specifically it shall observe:

- i. Registration of voters and voter register updating process
- ii. Intra-party nominations
